Get Ready for Fun and Adventure at the National Public Lands Day Celebration

ALTURAS, Calif., September 25, 2024- Get ready for an exhilarating day at the National Public Lands Day Celebration! This event is completely FREE and jam-packed with fun for the entire family!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 5th, from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm at the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center.

Witness an exciting rocket net and duck banding demonstration, construct your very own bat house, and engage in fun crafts in the kids' craft room. Bonus, there will be complimentary food for everyone!

Gather your family and friends for a thrilling day of adventure, proudly sponsored by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service, U.S. Forest Service, and the Bureau of Land Management. You won't want to miss it!

Whether you're passionate about hunting, hiking, fishing, camping, or photography, this is the perfect occasion to celebrate the public lands that you cherish and enjoy.

Simply load up the kids in the car and enter 4009 Hill Road, Tulelake, California into your GPS. It's just a short drive to the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center. Call 530-667-2231 for more information.
